Thank you for your letter of September 15th. I was very happy to have this opportunity to get together with you and to give you an idea of some of our plans. I want to push forward quite actively on this project, and we will keep in touch with you. In the meantime we have been discussing your interests with Bob Thayer in State, who also has some thoughts concerning your future. I would appreciate it if you would keep us advised of your whereabouts, and particularly should you decide to make any commitments.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Dulles, -

STAT
It was extremely kind of you to see me, especially yesterday when you were obliged to come to New York. I left [redacted] at 6:30 AM, and therefore failed to receive your thoughtful call.

Because I admire you so much and the objectives of your Agency, I would like to be a part of anything which can give further impetus to your work. Fully do I realize that getting the compelling and enormously important facts about Communism to the public presents problems which you are now explaining thoroughly with your top associates.

Thank you also for introducing me to General Cabell and Mr. Kukpatuck. What a very outstanding group of men you have gathered around you!

At this time I'm collecting material for a book I'm writing about [redacted]

I don't pretend to be anything except a hard-working newspaperman with a desire to make myself useful to the Government.

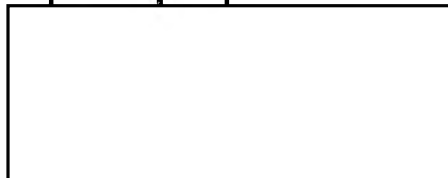

STAT

Needless to say, I can be reached here at if you or your associates need me in any way. I am at your command.

With warm regards and appreciation for your kindness.

Very Gratefully
